Hon. Daniel, B. Hoag

Capt. U. S. Mint

Dear Sir:-

I hope you will excuse me for troubling you.

I have some of the Continental currency.
One Bill is forty Dollars ($40.00) Printed in 1778. The other is Eight Shillings. Printed in 1775 I write you to know, if I could dispose of them at the Mint and what would be the value.
If not interfering too much on your valuable time, please reply. I have taken courage to write again. as I thought your Portrait in History of D. S. Banks, looked good valued.

Respectfully,

Ellen Perrow

If you are so kind to give me a reply. Address. Mrs E. L. Perrow

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Supt. U.S. Mint

Dear Sir: -

I hope you will excuse me for troubling you. I have some of the Continental currency. One Bill is forty dollars ($150.00) printed in 1778. The other is eight shillings printed in 1777. I write you to know if I could dispose of them at the Mint and what would be the value. If not inclosing too much on your valuable time, please reply. Those taken courage to write you, as I thought your Portrait in history of U.S. Mint looked good natured.

Respectfully,
Ella Penrose

If you are so kind to give me a reply. Address Miss E.F. Penrose, Kingley Iowa
